

The Oregon Journal
30 Sept '72

COMMANDERS of two Navy destroyers tied up in Portland for weekend exchanged plaques Friday with City Commissioner Francis J. Ivancie, acting mayor in absence of vacationing Terry Schruck. Commanders are H. F. Burdick of USS DeHaven, left, and Larry May of USS McKean. On reserve cruise, commanders said they chose Portland as liberty port because of city's reputation for hospitality.